Hold Harmless Participation Agreement, Assumption of Risk and Waiver of Liability

Please read carefully and sign on the next page. Much is included here, including examples of risk, our refund policy, permission to use photos, and more:

Christopher & Kimberly M Chisholm, dba Wolf Camp and the Wolf College, Blue Skye Farm and School of Natural Science, all hereinafter known as Wolf Camp, cannot guarantee that the risks listed or implied herein won't occur. So in consideration of services of Wolf Camp, its owners, officers, agents, employees, assistants and all other persons or entities associated with this business - including third parties such as collaborators, financial contributors, and host sites / land owners and renters upon whose property this business conducts programs, like the Conservation College, WA State Parks, WA DNR, WDFW, city parks, private farms and campgrounds, etc. and their officers, elected officials, agents and employees (hereafter known as Third Parties) - I agree as follows:

Although Wolf Camp will take reasonable steps to provide me (or my child) with appropriate support and security, certain risks cannot be eliminated without compromising the educational character of Wolf Camp programs. The same elements that contribute to this educational character can be causes of loss or damage to equipment, accidental injury or illness, or in extreme cases, permanent trauma, illness or death. I understand since its legal founding in January 1997, Wolf Camp participants have experienced cuts, bruises, burns, concussion, a severely rope-burned wrist, broken bones, sprained knee and ankles, possible infections, illness including appendicitis, heat exhaustion, and once in a while some tears, despite the best efforts by staff to attend to the physical, emotional, mental, and social needs of participants. In group teaching situations, it is impossible to prevent discomfort and even trauma in every circumstance, even though it is a top priority. I trust that Wolf Camp staff wants me (or my child) to become a healthier person, but in order to facilitate the kind of education Wolf Camp intends, I agree to waive all claims of liability on the part of Wolf Camp and its Third Parties.

The lands and facilities that Wolf Camp utilize may be natural areas next to wilderness, and services can be few. Participants living in tents and in the open may be exposed to weather, venomous and wild animals, human intruders and all other hazards common to living. As anywhere, the services provided, including sanitary facilities, drinking water, kitchen and food services at Wolf Camp programs are susceptible to contamination. Those who participate in Wolf Camp programs and assist in camp maintenance, food preparation and clean-up do so in good faith but assume no responsibility for accidental or incidental illness or injury that may result. Fires, knapping pit, weapons/archery range, farm animal areas, sharp tools, hazardous plants, boats, water, vehicles and other hazards expose participants to risk. There are times when participants are able to range freely within designated boundaries, go alone to their study site, pet animals, play in wooded areas which have limited visual perspective, and participate in supervised swimming and boating.

Wolf Camp owners and staff, paid and volunteer, offer their services to make programs wonderful. However, I agree they are not responsible for accidents, injuries, illnesses or losses that may come as a result of my (child's) participation. I understand that the description of risks is not complete and that other unknown or unanticipated risks may result in loss, injury or death. I agree to assume responsibility for all risks, even those not identified herein. My (child's) participation in Wolf Camp activities is purely voluntary. By signing below, I elect to participate in spite of the risks, listed or implied or not, and I waive all legal claims against Wolf Camp and its Third Parties. I assume full responsibility for all costs resulting from all losses and expenses thereof, whether resulting from evacuation, transport, treatment, future effect or otherwise. I have read, understood, and accepted the terms and conditions stated herein and acknowledge that this participation agreement, assumption of risk, and waiver of liability shall be effective and binding upon myself, all family members, heirs, assigns, personal representatives, estates, interested friends and partners.

Health Insurance & Medical Treatment: I certify that the applicant named on this form is capable of participating in this activity, and that s/he has current, full medical coverage at all times while attending Wolf Camp activities with a deductible not to exceed $2,000 per incident and per year. I understand Wolf Camp can direct me to affordable temporary health insurance upon request. I give full consent (for my child) to receive medical treatment deemed necessary by those responsible, whether or not reasonable attempt made to inform next of kin is successful. I will assume full financial responsibility for any cost relating to any accident or injury that may occur while participating in Wolf Camp programs. I hold all people associated with Wolf Camp harmless for any loss, accident, injury or death that might occur, and I hereby agree to release and indemnify Wolf Camp and its Third Parties whatsoever, from any claims and/or damages arising out of my (child's) participation. Qualified instructors, guides, and other facilitators associated with Wolf Camp may provide First Aid and CPR response to participants in case of injury or other health problems, including calling for professional medical assistance. I also understand that emergency medical response may not be readily available due to travel outside of 911 call areas. I agree to indicate on an attached paper any health care requests that may conflict with the training of Wolf Camp staff, and I understand that although efforts will be made to accommodate my attached requests, that persons responsible may nonetheless make "Good Samaritan" decisions that they deem best in health care situations.

Behavior & Lost Items: I will not hold Wolf Camp, Third Parties, nor any program participant responsible for articles or any personal belongings lost or damaged by any means (fire, theft, activities, laundry, etc.). I know that participants may be asked to leave at any time for inappropriate behavior, and no refund nor credit will be given for the portion of the program which is missed. I will be sure to read the behavioral agreements after registering, or view them meanwhile online. I also understand that people gathering as strangers in a common space bring with them their own politics, spirituality, and social behaviors, creating group dynamics that may be completely new. Wolf Camp encourages participants to be exposed to a variety of age-appropriate backgrounds, value systems and acceptable behaviors. I agree that I (and my child) will be respectful, tolerant and temperate in behaviors while participating in Wolf Camp activities. I also understand that unpredictability of human nature can't guarantee a lack of incidents on the part of other participants.

Refund & Suspension Policy: Deposits ($100 for day programs, $200 for overnight programs) are not refundable unless we don't accept your application. If you cancel for any reason, you may receive a full credit good through the following calendar year on appropriate and available programs listed on our schedule, although an additional deposit is needed to secure your spot in the future program. If a program you sign up for is canceled and not rescheduled at a time you can attend, you may receive a full refund except in cases of natural (weather, geologic, wildfire, etc) disasters, pandemics, government shutdowns, conflicts or curfews, or other unforeseen emergencies making it unsafe for staff and/or attendees to reach or use program locations, in which case all payments made will be held by us without expiration date for your future use in appropriate/available programs of your choice. Reasons include the expenditure of funds (property rentals, advertising, materials, admin staff time, etc.) long before programs take place, i.e. deposits make it feasible for Wolf Camp to schedule programs in the first place, but our mutually understood agreement is that Wolf Camp will run the program at the safest available time in the future. Finally, no refund, nor credit, is given if a participant is asked to leave a program for inappropriateness as determined by our kids, youth and adult agreements for participation, so I commit to reading the agreements and (my child) adhering to them, taking full risk of (s/he) missing program time without refund.

Photos, Video & Recordings: I give permission for pictures, audio and video recordings (of my child) to be taken and for the sounds and images to be used for Wolf Camp advertisements, websites, social networking sites, and other program promotions or outreach, unless otherwise indicated. In consideration of all statements made on all pages of this release, and not relying on any other information stated or published by Wolf Camp or any other entity that may or may not contradict statements on these pages, I wish to (have my child) participate in the Wolf Camp activities indicated on this form or implied through program payments.

Please describe what your (child's) most positive learning experience has been, what made it positive, and what you think should happen for more students to enjoy learning?

What might be your greatest contribution to camp (such as helpfulness, inspiring others, skills, etc.)?

What problems or conflicts sometimes come up with 1) your peers, 2) your teachers, or 3) your family, that may surface (things that may affect your mood, your energy level, etc.)?

Note here instructions for dealing with any unique physical, emotional, and social health concerns. Also write any expectations, questions, or indications that will help us prepare to give you or your child a great program. It might also be important to let us know about any loss such as a departure of family or friend:

We're serious about our Agreements for Participation (found via our website contact-register page and on all program pages) so please only apply after you know you can keep those agreements at all times to ensure safe, exciting and unique learning experiences.
